

Werner Kuhlwetter, Heinz Werner, Alessandro Alessandroni who will be performing at the Summer Time Concert in Swakopmund.

MEDIA RELEASE

A Treat For The Music Lover's Ear

Classical music lovers can expect an amazing concert by the College of the Arts, Home of the Bank Windhoek Arts Festival (COTA), entitled "Beginner's Concert", on 22 April 2010. Swakopmunders can also expect to hear beautiful melodies during the Summer Time Concert, taking place on 24 April 2010. This music concert will consist of an eclectic mix of Classical, Contemporary, Jazz, Movie soundtracks, as well as Traditional music from Ireland, Italy and Germany. Sharon Van Rooi, accompanied by four vocalists from the Mascato Choir, will also perform at the Summer Time Concert.

During the Summer Time Concert, artists Christoph Galliker and Heiner Kittel will paint a 4-piece panel stage backdrop entitled "A Musical Synthesis". The Musical Synthesis is a spontaneous painting of sound and movement, which will be raffled at the end of the concert to four lucky winners. The funds raised through the raffle tickets sold will be donated to the Cancer Association of Namibia. "The Bank Windhoek Arts Festival would like to encourage Swakopmunders to attend the Summer Time Concert, as the proceeds from the concert will be donated to the Cancer Association of Namibia", said Aldo Behrens, Bank Windhoek Arts Festival Coordinator.